- Hi, Tom! Where are you going? Are you going to the park to play football?
- No, Mary, not now. I'm going to the shops. It's my father's birthday and I haven't got a present for him.
- My Dad's forty three. How old is your Dad?
- He is thirty four on Sunday.
- What are you going to give him?
- I don't know. It's difficult.
- What does he like?
- Oh, he likes music, fishing, watching TV and reading.
- Why don't you buy him a USB flash drive?
- I can't, because my sister is giving him a USB flash drive.
- A book?
- Ah, I know. I can give him a fishing book. Thanks. Can you come to town with me?
- Sorry, I can't. Mum and I are going to Auntie Sally's house. Her cat has got four kittens and she says I can have one. I know which one I want. It's white with black ears and a long tail.
